Achievement of Market Friendly Initiatives and Results (AMIR 2.0)	The U.S. Agency for International Development has been supporting Jordan's trade capacity through the Achievement of Market Friendly Initiatives and Results (AMIR) Program for several years. The initial support was for World Trade Organization (WTO) accession as well as support for the Jordan U.S. Free Trade Agreement. Current support is focused on Jordan's competitiveness under its newly liberalized trade regime in addition to its adherence to requirements of these agreements. This activity is in support of the US-Jordan FTA. Funded and implemented by USAID/Jordan.	WTO Awareness	800,000

Ex-Im Bank Loan Guarantee for Telecom Network in Jordan	Ex-Im Bank loan guarantee to support the export from the U.S. of services for a national telecommunications network in Jordan. The funding level shown is the cost of guaranteeing the $49.4 million loan for this project. A telecoms network will boost Jordan's ability to attract investment and trade, and is a key part of the Governments Plan for Social and Economic Transformation (PSET), launched in 2001. Funded and implemented by Export-Import Bank.	Physical Infrastructure Development	2,017,757
Jordan-U.S. Business Partnership	The Jordan U.S. Business Partnership Program (JUSBP) is a firm level assistance project designed to help Jordanian firms thrive under its bilateral and multilateral trade agreements. JUSBP is designed to facilitate trade by Jordanian enterprises. It is most specifically targeting trade with the U.S. market but also supports other global trade activities. JUSBP has helped activate Jordanian, non-textile exports to the U.S. in product categories where there were no exports to the U.S. before USAID's support was offered. This activity is in support of the US-Jordan FTA. Funded and implemented by USAID/Jordan.	E-Commerce & IT	1,075,000
