Zambia Trade and Investment Enhancement (ZAMTIE) Project	The Zambia Trade and Investment Enhancement (ZAMTIE) Project continued to be USAID/Zambia's lead project in trade and investment promotion. ZAMTIE is providing technical assistance and training to government and private sector stakeholders to improve the trade and investment environment. The main components of the ZAMTIE project are: (1) reducing barriers to trade; (2) capacity building in the public/private sector to facilitate trade, investment, economic growth and poverty reduction; and (3) fostering linkages among producers, suppliers, processors, traders, service providers and consumers within and outside Zambia. During FY04 the project assisted the government of Zambia to produce a draft Safeguards legislation, develop a Private Sector Development Plan (with strong private sector involvement in regional and international trade agreement activities) and conclude an agricultural marketing plan to enable Zambia engage more strongly in regional trade opportunities.
