Belarus Economic Education Project (BEEP)	The Belarus Economic Education Project (BEEP) provides unbiased economic information through economic education and accounting training. As a catalyst for dialogue on regional economic development, integration, and economic reform, USAID hopes to increase understanding of the benefits of reform, and build support for a reform agenda. Five regional roundtables and a national conference were conducted. The project also works to bring financial reporting in compliance with international standards. BEEP launched a world-class Certified Accounting Practitioner/Certified International Professional Accountant (CAP/CIPA), Russian language, certification program. The first ever CAP/CIPA exams in the country included 57 examinees in financial accounting and 48 examinees in managerial accounting, and resulted in the highest pass rate--over 80 percent--in all of the Newly Independent States. Funded by USAID/Belarus and implemented by USAID/Ukraine.	Financial Sector Dev. & Good Governance	59,200
		Business Services & Training	236,800
		Activity Total	296,000
Border Security: Export Enforcement Workshop in Belarus	Promotes border security and customs operations by funding a workshop to support the ability of Belarus to enforce export controls. This activity is part of the Export Control and Related Border Security Assistance (EXBS) program, the premier initiative by the U.S. Government to help other countries improve their export control systems. The EXBS program takes a regional and multilateral approach, promoting harmonization of national export control systems with international standards and facilitating information-sharing agreements among nations. The program also organizes a number of regional fora to bring national policymakers and technical experts together to share information and best practices. Funded by Department of State and implemented by Department of Commerce.	Customs Operation & Administration	85,000
