Activity Title	Activity Description	TCB Category	FY06	FY07
			Total	Total
Consultations on Law and Economics, Economic Development through Law Reform	The U.S. Embassy in Tunisia and the Ministry of Justice (MOJ) are holding consultations in the U.S. on law and economics for a small team of judges from the Centre d'Etudes Juridiques et Judiciaires (CEJJ), which is part of the MOJ. This would enable CEJJ to better contribute to the modernization of the Tunisian economy and would help bolster initiatives to expand the rule of law in Tunisia. The CEJJ delegates are among the most highly regarded of the Tunisian judiciary and have significant influence on the legislative process. They can be key catalysts for commercial law reform in Tunisia.	Governance/Transparency and Inter-Agency Coordination	50,001
