Economic Policy Reform Project	The Economic Policy Reform Project worked to improve the environment for small and medium enterprises (SME) growth, both by strengthening the banking sector and improving economic policy to foster more transparent budget development, taxation, and government accountability. Uzbekistan Description for 2007: The activity focuses on building the capacity of Uzbek think tanks, universities and NGOs to conduct policy analysis and research. The project works with the Uzbek think tanks and NGOs on research projects covering two main topics: economic impact of trade liberalization and WTO accession, and tax policy. In Uzbekistan, many policy makers believe that local producers would suffer greatly if trade restrictions were reduced. The project has provided assistance to Uzbek think tanks.
