| Amazonian Center for Sustainable Forest Enterprise (CADEFOR) | USAID, the U.S. Forest Service, the World Wildlife Fund and the Bolivian Chamber of Forest Industries have created CADEFOR. This activity supports community and private sector players with production processes, product development, and market promotion. It does this by linking buyers and sellers of certified wood and by providing business development assistance to private companies. Bolivia Description for 2008: Bolivia, with a population of approximately 9 million, continues to face significant development challenges, including social exclusion, income inequality, lack of opportunities and conflict. Roughly 2/3 of Bolivians live in poverty, with rural poverty close to 80%. Life expectancy is approximately 64 years, well below the regional average, with infant mortality at 54 deaths/1,000 live births. Migration to urban areas continues, with just under two-thirds of Bolivians living in cities. | Business Services and Training | 25,001 | 300,001 |
