Bolivian Productivity and Competitiveness Project (BPC Project)	The BPC Project increases productivity and sales of micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs) to generate/sustain employment and increase incomes in urban and peri-urban areas. This happens through strengthening selected value chains, strengthening capacity of local organizations to provide services to MSMEs (i.e.: production technologies, clean production, quality control, financial access, etc.), and promoting initiatives to improve the business environment and workforce development. Bolivia Description for 2009: Bolivia, with a population of approximately 9 million, continues to face significant development challenges, including social exclusion, income inequality, lack of opportunities and conflict. Roughly 2/3 of Bolivians live in poverty, with rural poverty close to 80%. Life expectancy is approximately 64 years, well below the regional average, with infant mortality at 54 deaths/1,000 live births. Migration to urban areas continues, with just under two-thirds of Bolivians liv	Export Promotion		424,000
