Mongolia Trade and Competitiveness Activities	Mongolia's economic reforms during the past 15 years are significant, but much work remains to expand Mongolia's commercial interaction with the rest of the world. Assistance provided under this amendment will be used to help organize and streamline Mongolia's trade policy and regulatory regimes, with fewer burdens on businesses trying to engage in international trade. It will also be used to develop Mongolian business capacity to market products abroad. Mongolia Description for 2010: Note that "infrastructure development" does NOT include funding of infrastructure. It include feasibility and demand analysis for the customs clearance and inspection yard and logistics center at Zamyn-Uud, South border of Mongolia.	Trade-related Infrastructure		110,000
