Training Conference for Czech and Slovak Judges	In January, at the CEELI Institute in Prague, Czech Republic, the IPLEC participated in an intensive IPR training conference for nine judges and two others. Five judges came from Slovakia and four judges came from the Czech Republic—one from the Supreme Court, one from the district court in Prague, and two from the commercial court in Prague (which deals with industrial property). The district court judge stated that he has about 15 IPR cases, and found the course very useful.	Intellectual Property Rights (IPR)	3,300
