Intellectual Property Foreign Criminal Enforcement Training and Technical Assistance	This spending responds to a Congressional soft earmark directing the Department (INL) to fill a gap in govt-to-govt criminal enforcement training to build capacity of foreign law enforcement to cooperate with the USG in combating IPR theft. The earmark has been put in annually at the instance of key US industry rights holders who believe strong government-to-government involvement in training was a 'missing link' that needed to be filled to counter increasingly sophisticated transnational crime. Chile Description for 2011: CHILE: IPR Training for Judges. DOJ proposes a study tour over a two year period to educate Chilean judges on handling IPR crimes cases, including development of a bench book on adjudicating IPR cases and follow up monitoring by the US Mission.
