Program to Help Developing Countries Legally Empower the Poor	The purpose of this grant is to promote worldwide awareness and facilitate the legal empowerment of the poor through the granting and upholding of basic economic rights for individuals. This includes real property rights as well as so-called business rights, contract rights, and judicial enforcement of the same. Activities are focused in developing countries that request help from ILD. Peru Description for 2011: ILD is working in the Loreto Region researching property rights, mechanisms to enhance business participation, and consultation and participation mechanisms within native communities in the Peruvian Amazon. The project aims to implement the first land formalization program in the region as well as to contribute to ways to put an end to disputes arising from conflicts between indigenous interests and rights and state-granted concessions for the exploitation of natural resources in native lands.
