Program to Help Developing Countries Legally Empower the Poor	The purpose of this grant is to promote worldwide awareness and facilitate the legal empowerment of the poor through the granting and upholding of basic economic rights for individuals. This includes real property rights as well as so-called business rights, contract rights, and judicial enforcement of the same. Activities are focused in developing countries that request help from ILD. Tunisia Description for 2011: Hernando de Soto led a team to conduct a pre-diagnostic in Tunisia in the spring of 2011. ILD studied different aspects of life and business activities of a street vendor in Tunisia. ILD also studied the situation in Tunis and seven other governorates in Tunisia, and researched the degree that extensive extralegality was one of the main causes of the social unrest in Tunisia and the other countries in the MENA region.
